

Pet Care Safety Plan Checklist

- Emergency contacts, such as your veterinarian and local police, as well as a history of health concerns for your pet:
- A list of your pet's medications.
- Your pet's immunization history.
- Your pet's microchip information.
- Pet insurance card.
- Local government registration number.
- A clear photo of your pet.

Here are some things to mention:

- Your pet's daily routines.
- How and when to administer each of your pet's medications.
- Your pet's daily food intake, including dry food, wet food and treats and where you keep them.
- Your pet's favorite games and toys and where you keep them.
- Your pet's personality -- does she get along with other animals and people? Does he have any anxieties (such as the mailman or motorcycles driving by)?
- Your favorite walking spots and dog parks.

Stock Up on Supplies:

- Food (dry food, wet food and treats) and bowls.
- Medications, including when and how much to give.
- Toys.
- Harnesses and leashes.
- ID tags.
- Grooming supplies, such as shampoo, brushes, toothbrushes and toothpaste.
- Cleaning supplies, such as paper towels and an enzymatic cleanser.
- Pet carrier, if applicable.

Prepare Your Home:

- Lock up your valuables and store them in a safe, hidden location.
- Shut off any areas of the house where you don't want your pets to go.
- Make sure all cleaning products, insect and weed killers, rat poison and medicines are out of your pet's reach.
- Repair any holes in your fence and secure all gates.
- Introduce your sitter to your pet and make sure they get along.
- Give him plenty of affection and reassurance before you leave.
